Amazing Price Value

Automate your workflow, by sending reminder alerts to patients about their appointments, notify them of a balance due, or let them know when a doctor can't make an appointment.

This has become an expected service in this day and age. Your practice will benefit from having a fully automated reminder service by reducing the amount of manual labor, no-shows and reduce postage costs dramatically.

Our Best Practice advice comes free with our products, so you can make the most out of your new automated reminder service.
